

7th of May 2019

Continuing Professional Development Mission Statement

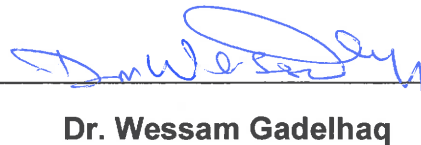

Sidra Medicine is a premier women and children hospital committed to lifelong learning and excellence in healthcare in Qatar. The continuing professional development program fosters the ongoing educational needs of the culturally diverse, interprofessional healthcare team by improving knowledge, competence and performance based on the latest evidence; this translates into exceptional health care quality and patient outcomes.

Professor Ibrahim Janahi
Designated Institutional Official and Chairman of Medical Education Department

Dr. Guy Brisseau
Chairman of Continuing Professional Development Committee

Dr. Wessam Gadelhaq
Director of Medical Education Office